man's reputation may be subjected is that of prejudice. Greater prejudice never existed than that between the North and the South in the sixties, and yet the greatness of Gen. Lee has so completely overcome it that non but the narrowest fail to realize and admit it.

We love the memory of Washington and every one admits that he was a good man and a great general, and yet, if he had lived in the time of Lee and had held his position in the Confederate army I do not believe he could have accomplished what Lee did.

I regard him as not the least among the world's generals, but the equal of, if not greater, than any other known to history. Well may we assemble in celebration of the one hundredth anniversary of one so great. He loved the Stars and Bars under which he fought so bravely, but when the struggle was over he could easily content himself to spend the remainder of his life under the protection of the Stars and Stripes.

It has been said that, "As long as Gen. Lee is remembered, Americans will not lack for patriotism." Neither will they be lacking in moral courage. Now, the Veterans and their sons and daughters are invited to meet around the festival board, and as soon as you do this you continue to perpetuate the memory of that great chieftain and show forth the high regard you still have for him.

COWAN IS SENT TO NEW FIELD OF LABOR

Well Known special Pensioner Examiner Is Transferred From Springfield to West Virginia.

James P. E. Cowan, special pension examiner, owing to a reduction of his work in the Springfield district, has been transferred to a new district, with headquarters at the city of Point Pleasant, W. Va. This district is mountainous and bisected by the Big Kanawha and the Ohio rivers, but is well supplied with railroad lines.

Special Examiner N. B. Miller will remain in charge of the Springfield district, his territory being enlarged by the twenty-one counties heretofore in charge of Special Examiner Cowan, and situated in northern Arkansas and southwest Missouri. Thus he will have a territory embracing forty counties, making this the largest single district for the special examination of pension claims ever constituted in the state of Missouri.

This fact demonstrates the rapid reduction of work of this class now going on in the country at large, and is due to the extensive falling off of original pension claims caused by the death of soldiers who participated in the civil war, and also in part due to recent pension legislation, which increases pensions of civil war soldiers upon an old age basis.

Mr. Cowan was connected with The Republican, as news editor, thirteen years ago, when the paper was owned by Chambers & Comings, and resigned to enter his present position in government service. He came here from the Cape Girardeau pension district last May. He is making arrangements to leave Springfield Monday night for his new field of labor.—Springfield Mo., Republican.

MANY ATTRACTIONS.

PLANS FOR GREATER LOUISVILLE EXPOSITION OPENING MAR. 18.

BASE-BALL GAMES SPECIAL DAYS.

Louisville Extends a Most Cordial Invitation To All To Visit Louisville at This Time.

As the time for the opening of the Greater Louisville Exposition draws near, the interest in that great event in this and all other sections of the State of Kentucky, as well as throughout the South, is greatly increasing. The visitors to Louisville will return home and give expressions of deep interest in the exposition and pride in the enterprise and public spirit of the exposition officials working so hard in the interest of their state and city without prospect or wish for any pecuniary gain.

Showing what pride they take in their city's great enterprise, the merchants and manufacturers of Louisville have covered their envelopes and stationery almost over with advertising matter concerning the exposition, and the title, "Greater Louisville Exposition," seems to appear in the most unexpected quarters at the most unexpected time. Louisville "drummers" who visit here let no one escape, and, if for no other reason, the people of Kentucky will be bound to go to Louisville between March 18 and 30 to see what has been so widely heralded. This will be a matter of easy accomplishment, because the railroads of Kentucky have announced a rate of one fare for the round trip, with three selling dates each week, the tickets good returning until April 1. Besides these splendid rates, many single-day excursions will be run, and it is said by the railroad officials composing the Southeastern Passenger Association, that the rates for these excursions will be the best ever offered for a similar enterprise.

FRED LEVY,

President of the Louisville Commercial Club, and Vice President of the Greater Louisville Exposition Company.

The Division of Programme of the exposition is now busily engaged in preparing the plans for various special days. Interesting programmes will be arranged for these special days, and the music by the great Creators' band will be an added attraction to the exposition twice daily. This band of sixty renowned soloists is recognized everywhere as being absolutely the foremost organization of its kind, and the twice-daily concerts will be included in the extraordinarily low price of admission, which will be twenty-five cents for adults and fifteen cents for children. For special days, Sig. Creators has very graciously consented to make his programme typical of the occasion. The following days have been decided upon, and plans are in train to make each one an unique success: Dedication Day, Edison Day, Children's Day, Greater Louisville (Falls City) Day, All Kentucky Day, Fraternal Day, Transportation Day, Woman's Day, University Day, Music Day, Newspaper Day and Get-away Day.

It will be of interest to lovers of the national game to know that the Louisville Baseball team will contest with two major league teams during the exposition period, playing five games in all. It can be seen that the people of Kentucky will have a splendid opportunity of seeing the Greater Louisville Exposition, hear Creators' famous band, and see such magnificent baseball organizations as the Chicago National League team and the Boston Americans. Boston will play three games, March 23, 24 and 25, while Chicago will play two games, March 28 and 29. Louisville will certainly hold vast interest for Kentuckians during the period of March 18-30.
